LANDON NORDEMAN

Looking for the eternal in the ephemeral, Nordeman photographs fine art projects and works for commercial and editorial clients around the world. Nordeman has documented state fairs, dog shows, political conventions and fashion shows. Both artist and journalist, his candid photos expose the extraordinary in the everyday life, and the humor in the extraordinary life. Nordeman is attracted to color and gesture, mystery and humor, preferring his work to ask a question, not give an answer. His mastery of light and composition combined with an eye to documenting unexpected moments make his work visually and intellectually fascinating.

The New Yorker, New York Magazine, Time, Sports Illustrated, ESPN The Magazine, The New York Times Magazine, National Geographic Magazine, W, Vanity Fair and Vogue have commissioned Nordeman's work.
